Courtney Schlinke, 21, is alleged to have raped a girl under 16 on multiple occasions.

Among the complaints are 16 counts of rape by instrumentation, nine of lewd acts with a child and eight of oral sodomy, records show.

Her arrest comes after a woman phoned Oklahoma City police in early July alleging Schlinke and the girl had a sexual relationship.

Quizzing the alleged victim, officers heard allegations of at least 70 encounters over an eight-month period.

RESIGNED: Courtney resigned from Valley Brook Police Department (Image: KFOR)

Valley Brook Police chief, Michael Stamp, told local news station Fox25 that Schlinke resigned on July 20 in an unrelated personnel matter.

He told the broadcaster: "We've been trying to make changes out here for a long time.
